10. COMMITMENT

Expectations from the school in order for you to graduate:

- To receive a certificate of completion at the end of the term 80% attendance is required
- Each student is required to purchase a booklet and audio compilation of the modules which will be made available at the end of the term

Important Notes:

- It is important to note that these teachings do not replace the bible. The teachings take reference from the Bible and are meant to bring clarity understanding and a deeper fellowship with God" This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it..." Joshua 1:8. Therefore students are encouraged to be consistent in their commitment to studying the Bible.
- In order to grow in understanding and knowledge of the teachings, it is essential to mediate on the teachings and to maintain a consistent life of prayer "Call to me and I will answer you, and will tell you great and hidden things that you have not known" Jeremiah 33:3.

Declaration of commitment and oath

I herewith declare that I shall adhere to the subsequent codes and submit myself to the authority of the Principal and the authority of the school.

- I accept the Bible as the Word of God, given and inspired by the Holy Spirit, as the unique and trustworthy testimony in which God reveals Himself and which was given to us by Him for the salvation of His people "All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness," 2 Timothy 3:16-17.
- I commit to be consistent in studying and meditating on the word and teachings in order to grow in the knowledge and understanding of the teachings provided "Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth" 2 Timothy 2; 15.
- In my conduct I shall strive to grow spiritually, in character and to improve my gifts for ministry in God's kingdom "I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called," Ephesians 4:1.
- I commit to attend at least 80% of the classes in order to be allowed to write the examination and receive my qualification.
- I commit to purchase the course material to be provided at the end of every teaching term.
- I declare that the information I have given is accurate.
